An Act for the further and more adequate Punishment of Persons convicted of Manlaughter, and of Servants convicted of robbing their Masters, and of Accessories before the Fact in Grand Larceny, and certain other Felonies. [24th June 1822.]

WHEREAS the Punishment of hanging in the Head has long been deemed ineffectual and inexpedient: And Whereas the other Punishments which may by Law be inflicted upon Persons convicted of the Offence of Manlaughter are frequently inadequate to the aggravated Circumstances of such Offence: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice

Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, whosoever any Person shall be lawfully convicted of the Offence of Mischief, such Person shall not be liable to be burnt or marked in the Hand, or in any Part thereof, but such Person shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his or her natural Life, or for any Term of Years, at the Court before which any such Person shall be convicted shall adjudge; or shall be liable, in case the said Court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the Common Goal, House of Correction or Penitentiary House, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, or shall be liable to such a pecuniary Fine, as to the said Court, in its Discretion, shall seem meet; and such Fine or other Punishment imposed by virtue of this Act shall have the like Effects and Consequences to the Party on whom such Fine or other Punishment shall be so imposed, with respect to any Discharge from the same or other Felony, or any Restitution to his or her Estates, Capacities and Credits, as if he or she had continued liable to the former Punishment of burning or marking in the Hand, and had suffered such former Punishment.

II. And Whereas frequent Depredations have of late been committed by Clerks, Apprentices, and Servants, to the serious Detriment and Loss of their Masters, Mistresses or Employers; and it is expedient that such Offenders, when entitled to Benefit of Clergy, should be made liable to a more severe Punishment, than can now by Law be inflicted: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant whatsoever, shall feloniously steal any Goods, Chattels, Money, Bond, Bank Note, Cheque upon a Banker or Bankers's Draft, Promissory Note for the Payment of Money, Bill of Exchange, or other valuable Security or Effects, from or belonging to, or in the Possession, Custody or Power of his, her or their Master or Masters, Mistress or Mistresses, or Employer or Employers, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, and be entitled to the Benefit of Clergy, then and in every such Case such Offender or Offenders, instead of being subjected to such Punishment as may now by Law be inflicted upon Persons so convicted, and entitled to the Benefit of Clergy, may, at the Discretion of the Court by or before which he, she or they shall be convicted, be ordered and adjudged to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Goal, House of Correction or Penitentiary House, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

And Whereas Children, Servants and others, are often induced to commit Thefts, by the Persuasion, Instigation or Commands of wicked and evil-disposed Persons, who, not being present, aiding and assisting in the Commission of such Thefts, frequently escape the Punishment which so much as an Office demands: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person or Persons shall counsel, hire, procure or command any other Person or Persons to commit any Larceny whatsoever of the Degree of Grand Larceny, then and in every such Case, if the Person or Persons so counselling, hiring, procuring or commanding as aforesaid, shall be convicted of Felony, and shall be entitled to the Benefit of Clergy, and by the Laws now in force shall be liable to be fined and imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Year only, he, she or they, instead of being so fined and imprisoned as aforesaid, may, at the Discretion of the Court by or before which any such Offender shall be convicted, be ordered and adjudged to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, in the Common Goal, House of Correction or Penitentiary House, for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

CIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, that any useful Processes or Experiments in Chemistry in any Part of Scotland shall require a Still or Stills of greater Content or Capacity than that of Fifty Gallons English Wine Measure as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Excise to grant or authorize and direct a Licence to be granted to the Owner or Owners of such Chemical Work or Works, to use for the Purposes aforesaid a Still or Stills of larger Content or Capacity than as aforesaid; and that it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at all Hours in the Day Time, to visit such Work or Works, and such Still or Stills, belonging to any Person or Persons licensed under the Authority of this Act, and to examine by all proper means the Liquor or Matter coming from the said Still or Stills, but not to open the said Still or Stills unless the said Officer or Officers shall not otherwise be allowed to examine the Liquor or Matter coming from the said Still or Stills: and if any such Still or Stills shall at any Time be used or employed for the Purpose of distilling Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Still or Stills, and all Utensils belonging thereto, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Owners and Users thereof shall be subject and liable to all the Fines and Penalties made and provided by this Act against Persons working with unlicensed Stills.

CX. And be it further enacted, That before any Person in Scotland shall make any Still, such Person shall take out a Licence for that Purpose, as before mentioned, and shall permit and allow any Officer or Officers of Excise, at all Hours in the Day Time, to enter any Workhouse, Shop or other Place made Use of by such Person for making or keeping Stills, and to inspect and examine the same; and all Stills which shall be used by any Person or Persons so licensed, shall be made of Copper only, and not of any other Metal: and every such Maker or Makers of Stills shall stamp his, her, or their Name or Names, and the progressive Number, and the Content or Capacity of every Still made by him, her, or them, upon the Shoulder of every such Still: and in order that the Content of the said Still or Stills may be distinctly ascertained, the said Maker or Makers shall, and he, she and they it are and are hereby required, within Three Days after finishing any Still, to give Notice to the proper Supervisor or Officer of the District or Division where such Still hath been made, that the same is ready to be gauged and stamped; and such Supervisor or Officer is hereby required, within Three Days after such Notification, to gauge such Still, and to grant a Certificate, specifying the progressive Number, Content and Maker's Name of such Still; and in case any such Maker or Makers shall not take out such Licence as aforesaid, or shall make any Still of any Metal other than Copper, or shall neglect to give such Notice to the Supervisor or Officer as aforesaid, or shall in any respect offend in any of the Particulars aforesaid, such Maker or Makers shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall import or bring any Still or Stills into Scotland, from England or Ireland, or from Foreign Parts, such Person or Persons shall, within Three Days after the Arrival of such Still or Stills, give Notice of the same, and of the Place where the same is deposited, to the proper Supervisor or Officer of the District or Division, and such Supervisor or Officer shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of such Notice, gauge and cause to be stamped the said Still or Stills, in the same manner as heretofore directed in the case of a Still or Stills being made in Scotland; and if any Person who shall so import or bring any Still or Stills into Scotland, shall neglect or omit to give such Notice thereof as aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every Still so imported or brought.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Still or Stills shall be created and made use of, or be found in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons in Scotland, without having been previously gauged by the proper Officer of Excise, and marked in the manner heretofore mentioned, every such Still shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Owner and Carriers thereof shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, over and besides all other Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act for the unlawful using the same.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer or Officers of Excise, shall know or have cause to suspect that any private or concealed Still, or any Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel, or any Spirits, Low Wines, Wort or Wash, or other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, are set up or kept in any House or Place by any Person not licensed under this Act, then and in such case, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Place where such Officer or Officers shall suspect the same to be set up and kept, setting forth the grounds of such his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices before whom such Oath shall be made, if he or they shall judge it reasonable, by special Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers, by Day or by Night, to break open the Doors or any Part of such House or Place, where he or they shall so know or suspect that such private or concealed Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel, Spirits, Low Wines, Wort, Wash or Materials for Distillation, are so set up or kept, and to enter into such House or Place, and to seize all and every such Stills, Becks, Vats, Coolers and other Vessels, and all such Spirits, Low Wines, Wort, Wash and other Materials, preparing or prepared for Distillation, which shall be there found and discovered, and either to detain and keep the same in the House or Place where found, or to remove the same to the Office of Excise near to the Place where the same shall be so discovered and found; and in case the same shall not within Ten Days next after such Seizure, be claimed by some Person at the time and lawful Owner thereof, then the said Stills, Backs, Vats, Coolers and other Vessels, Spirts, Low Wines, Wash and other Materials for Distillation, shall be absolutely forfeited, and the Proprietor of any such private or concealed Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose for every Place in which every such Private Still, Back, Vat, Cooler or other Vessel shall be so found, and also for every such Still, Back, Vat, Cooler and Vessel found therein, the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct, oppose, resist or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise, or others acting in their Assistance, in the seizing any such private or concealed Stills, Backs, Vats, Coolers or other Vessels, or Spirts, Low Wines, Wash or other Materials for Distillation, or in detaining or keeping the same in the Place where found or in removing the same or any of them, after Seizure, to the next Office of Excise as aforesaid, then and in every such case every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

CXLV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be decreed or construed to extend, to make it unlawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to search for and discover any private or concealed Still, Back or other Vessel, for the making, preparing or keeping of Wort, Wash, Low Wines or Spirts, or other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation in any Part of Scotland, without such Warrant as aforesaid, or from seizing every such Still, Back, or other Vessel, and all such Low Wines, Spirts, Wort, Wash and other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, which he or they shall so find and discover, or to do therewith in the same manner as aforesaid; and every such Person with whom the same shall be found, or who shall obstruct any such Officer or Officers, or shall otherwise offend in any of the Particulars aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as if such Officer or Officers had been authorized by such Warrant as aforesaid; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

CXLV. And Whereas Wort or Wash, and other Materials fit and proper for Distillation, are often found in the Custody and Possession of Persons notoriously concerned in private and illicit Distillation, and such Offenders frequently escape from the Penalties of the Law, by the Removal and Concealment of their Still or Stills: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That all and every Person and Persons in Scotland, not being a Licensed Distiller, Brewer, or Vinegar Maker, in whose Possession any Quantity of Wort or Wash, fermenting or fermented, exceeding the Quantity of Twenty Gallons, or any Quantity whatsoever of Low Wines or Feints, shall be found, shall severally forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and all such Wort or Wash, Low Wines or Feints, together with the Casks or Vessels containing the same, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, which said Penalty of One hundred Pounds it shall not be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace in Scotland, by or before whom such Person or Persons shall be convicted, under any Pardon whatsoever, to mitigate or lessen under Twenty Pounds; and if the Penalty adjudged against such Person or Persons be not forthwith paid down to the Prosecutor, or to the Person authorized by him to receive the same, such Justice or Justices of the Peace, by or before whom such Person or Persons shall be convicted, are hereby authorized and strictly enjoined and required immediately, by his or their Warrant, under his or their Hands, to commit such Offender and Offenders to the Goal or Prison of the County, for any Time not exceeding Twelve Months, nor less than Six Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid.

CXLVI. And in order to deter persons from aiding or assisting the Proprietors of private Stills in carrying on their fraudulent Practices, be it further enacted, That when any Officer or Officers of Excise in Scotland shall at any Time discover and find any private or concealed Still, Back or Vessel, for the making, preparing or keeping of Wash, Low Wines or Spirts, or other Materials preparing or prepared for Distillation, and shall at the same Time discover in the Room or Place where such private Still, Back or other Vessel shall be so found, any Person or Persons knowingly aiding, assisting, or in any way concerned in carrying on such private Distillations, every such Person and Persons so discovered shall (over and above all other Penalties and Forfeitures to which the Proprietor or Person in whose Custody or Possession the same shall be found, is subject and liable) forfeit and lose the Sum of Thirty Pounds each, for and in respect of every such Offence; and it shall and may be lawful for the Officer and Officers of Excise, and all other Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, to stop, arrest and detain all and every the Person and Persons so discovered in such Room or Place, and to convey the said Person and Persons before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, City or Place respectively, wherein any such Person or Persons shall be so discovered as aforesaid; and it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, on Confession of the Party, or by Proof, or on the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses made of such Offence, to convict the Person or Persons so discovered as aforesaid, and the Person or Persons so convicted shall immediately on such Conviction severally pay the Sum of Thirty Pounds into the Hands of the Officer who shall have conveyed such Offender before such Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be applied in manner as hereinafter is directed; and if any such Offender shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Sum of Thirty Pounds, the Justice or Justices so convicting as aforesaid, shall and may, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, commit the Offender to the Goal or Prison of the County, there to remain for the Space of Six Calendar Months, and any Person so committed shall not be discharged until he or she shall have paid the said Sum of Thirty Pounds, or until the Expiration of the said Six Months;

Months; and in case any Person so convicted shall be again discovered in any Room or Place where any private Still, Back, or other Vessel shall be discovered and found as aforesaid, aiding, assisting, or otherwise concerned in carrying on any private Distillery, he or she so again offending shall, upon his Conviction, forfeit and pay for such Seized Office the Sum of Sixty Pounds, and shall be committed to the Goal or Prison in manner aforesaid, there to remain for and during the Term of One Year, unless the said Sum of Sixty Pounds shall be sooner paid.

CXVII. And Whereas Persons who are immediately concerned in the making of Spirits privately, or are connected with others employed in such unlawful Practices, frequently escape Punishment, because no direct Proof can be adduced that they were actually employed or connected with others in such private Distillation, although it may be evident that such private Distillation could not be carried on without their Knowledge and Consent; For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That in every case where sufficient Proof shall not be adduced to convict the Party of having been actually employed or concerned in such private Distillation, it shall be lawful to offer Proof, and for the Court before whom the case shall be heard to receive Proof that the private Distillery was carried on in some Part of the House, Out-house, Yards, Gardens, Lands or Premises belonging to or in the Occupation of the Party accused, and that from the Situation of the Place, or other Circumstances, such private Distillation was or must have been carried on with the Knowledge and Frivoly of the Party accused; and in such case it shall be lawful for such Court to fine the Party in any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds, and in case the Fine be not immediately paid, to commit the Party to the Goal or Prison of the County, for any time not exceeding Twelve Months, nor less than Six Calendar Months, unless the Fine be sooner paid.

CXVIII. And Whereas when the Officers of Excise have discovered private or unlawful Distilleries, it has often been found impossible or difficult to remove the Spirits, Materials and Utensils to a Place of Safety; For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That when any Officer or Officers of Excise shall find or discover any unlawful Distillery in any Part of Scotland, it shall and may be lawful so and for each Officer or Officers, or his or their Deputies, immediately upon the Discovery of such private or unlawful Distillery, and the Seizure of any Spirits or Materials, Implements or Utensils for Distillation, effectually to spill, break up and destroy the same; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller or Dealer in Spirits, or other Person in Scotland, licensed or not licensed, shall sell or send out, or shall knowingly suffer to be sent out of his or her Stock, Custody or Possession, or shall receive or knowingly suffer to be received into his or her Stock, Custody or Possession, or shall suffer any other Person, for his or her Use or Account, to receive as one Tien any Quantity of British Spirits exceeding the Quantity of Two Gallons, without the same being accompanied with a true and lawful Permit; or if any Carrier, Boatman or other Person in Scotland, shall knowingly carry, remove or transport, or by means of his Horse, Cart, Vessel, Boat or other Conveyance, shall knowingly suffer to be carried, removed or transported, or shall be aiding or assisting in carrying, removing or transporting from any Part of Scotland to another Part thereof, any Quantity of British Spirits at one Time, exceeding the Quantity of Two Gallons, without being accompanied with a true and lawful Permit; every such Distiller, Dealer, Carrier, Boatman or other Person whatsoever shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, over and above every other Penalty and Forfeiture to which he or she is or may be liable by virtue of this Act.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That when any Suit or Action shall be commenced, or any Information filed or exhibited against any Person receiving such British Spirits, unaccompanied with a true and lawful Permit, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture in such case by this Act imposed, it shall be sufficient for the Defendant or Defendants to prove that a lawful permit to accompany the Removal of such Spirits was duly obtained by the Party selling or sending out the same, and that there had been a corresponding Decent of the Stock of the Seller or Sender out thereof, to answer the Quantity of such Spirits so sent out and removed; and upon such Proof being made, such Spirits shall be adjudged to have been legally received, and according to the true intent and Meaning of this Act: Provided always, that where any Person receiving such Spirits (not being an entered Distiller, Rectifier or Compositor of, or Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits) shall, within Ten Days from the Receipt thereof, send or deliver to the nearest Officer of Excise the Permit which actually accompanied the same, every such private Person so delivering the Permit as aforesaid shall be held and deemed to have complied with the Provisions of this Act in respect to the receiving of such Spirits.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, by any Warrant, Order or Instruction, signed by any Three or more of them, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being, by any Order or Warrant, signed by any Three or more of them, to grant such Rewards to Officers, to be paid out of the Duties of Excise in Scotland, for Services performed by them in detecting and preventing illicit and fraudulent Distillation, as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall think proper, subject to such Rules, Conditions, Directions and Modifications as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall prescribe, in order to make it the Interest of such Excise Officers that no illicit or fraudulent Distillation whatever shall be carried on within their respective Districts or Divisions.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, Rectifier or Compositor of Spirits licensed under this Act, or any Workman or Servant belonging to or employed or authorized by such Distiller, Rectifier or Compositor, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall molest, disturb, hinder, oppose or inspect any Officer or Officers of Excise, in the due Execution of the Powers and Authority by this Act granted, or any of them, except in such cases for which any Provisions are by this Act specially provided; every such Distiller, Receiver or Comptroller, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

CXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise, of whatever Rank or Degree he shall or may be, employed under the Authority of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, shall make any collusive Agreement with any Distiller, or with any other Person for or on his Behalf, as his Agent, to omit to do any thing belonging to the Execution of his Employment as such Officer, or as consivo at or to conceal any Fraud or Breach or Neglect of the Law by such Distiller, or any Servants, Workmen or Agent of such Distiller, or to make any false Returns in respect of any of the Names and Things required by this Act or by any other Act of Parliament, for the better securing any Duty or Duties on Spirits made in Scotland, or for the Prevention of Smuggling in Scotland, or to do or to connive at, or to conceal or to omit to do any other Act, Matter or Thing, by the doing or the omission whereof His Majesty's Revenue shall be defrauded, or shall directly or indirectly ask or demand, or take or receive any Bribe, Gratuity, Fee, Recompence or Reward, for the Neglect or Nonperformance of any Part of his Duty, or for the restoring or absconding any Seizure, or for the forbearing to make any Seizure of any Still or Utensil, or any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints or Spirits, or the Casks or Vessels containing the same, or any other Goods, Matters or Things forfeited by Law, every such Officer therein offending, shall for each and every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and shall be for ever after incapable of serving His Majesty in any Office or Employment, Civil or Military; and if any Distiller licensed under this Act, or any Person on his Behalf, or as his Servant or Agent, shall directly or indirectly give or promise, or offer to give or promise, any Bribe, Recompence, Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for the Performance or Nonperformance of the Duty of such Officer; or shall make any collusive Agreement with any Officer of Excise, to forbear or neglect the due Performance and Discharge of his Duty as such Officer, in any of the Matters and Things required by this Act, or by any other Act of Parliament, for better securing any Duty or Duties upon Spirits made in Scotland, or for the Prevention of Smuggling in Scotland, or to do, or to connive at, or to conceal at, or to omit to do any Act, Matter or Thing, by the doing or the omission whereof any of the Provisions of this Act or any other Act or Acts shall be evaded or hindered, or His Majesty's Revenue injured, or to restore or to abscond any Seizure, or to forbear or to neglect to make any Seizure of any Still or Utensil, or any Wort, Wash, Low Wines, Feints or Spirits, or the Casks or Vessels containing the same, or any other Goods, Matters or Things forfeited by Law, every such Distiller and other Person as aforesaid shall for each and every such Offence (whether the Offer, Proposal, Promise or Agreement be accepted or performed or not) forfeit and lose the Sum of Five hundred Pounds. One third Part thereof, after deducting the Expenses of recovering the same, to be paid to His Majesty, and Two third Parts thereof to the Officer or Person who shall discover or disclose or inform of any such Offence: Provided always, that in case any such Officer who shall have asked, taken or received any such Bribe, Fee, Gratuity, Recompence or Reward, or entered into such collusive Agreement as aforesaid, shall, before any Complaint shall have been made, or any Proceeding had against such Officer for asking, taking or receiving, or for entering into the same, give Information to the said Commissioners of Excise, of the Gift or Offer of such Bribe, Fee, Gratuity, Recompence or Reward, or of such collusive Agreement, and the said Commissioners shall think fit that such Information should be proceeded upon, so that the Penalty aforesaid shall be recovered against the Person who shall give or offer or propose to give such Bribe, Fee, Recompence, Gratuity or Reward, or to make such collusive Agreement; or in case the Distiller or Person who shall give or offer any such Bribe, Fee, Gratuity, Recompence or Reward, or enter into any such collusive Agreement, shall, before any Complaint shall have been made, or any Proceeding had against such Distiller or other Person for giving or offering or entering into the same, give Information to the said Commissioners of Excise, of the asking, taking or receiving any such Bribe, Fee, Recompence, Gratuity or Reward, or of such collusive Agreement by any such Officer, and the said Commissioners shall think fit that such Information should be proceeded upon, so that the Penalty aforesaid shall be recovered against such Officer; then and in either of the said cases, either of the said Parties so first giving such Information to such Commissioners, shall be exempted from and indemnified against the Penalties and Disabilities imposed on such Party for such Offence by this Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That where by any Law now in being, or hereafter to be made, any Act is directed or authorized to be done by any Justice or Justices of the Peace residing in or near or near the Parish or Place where any Offence or other Matter cognizable before them shall be committed or shall arise, the same Jurisdiction shall and may be exercised by Justice or Justices sitting in such of the said Police Offices as may be situated next or near such Parish or Place.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, to make such Alterations in the Places where any of the said Police Offices shall be situated, or to make such Alterations in the Hours of Attendance therein, and to make all such other Regulations to be observed in conducting the same, as he or they from time to time shall think proper.

XVII. And Whereas divers Fairs are held within the City and Vicinity of London, by Charter or Prescription, and other Fairs without any lawful Authority, which lead to Scandal of Religion, Disorder, Debauchery and Crime, and it is expedient to regulate such Fairs as are lawfully held, and to suppress such as have no lawful Origin: Be it therefore enacted, That all Fairs held within Ten Miles of Temple Bar, all Bazaars and Amusements of all kinds, shall cease at the Hour of Eleven in the Evening, and not recommence earlier than the Hour of Six in the Morning, and that if any House, Shop, Room, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggon, or other Place, shall, during the Continuance of any such Fair as aforesaid, be open within the Hours heretofore prohibited, for any Purpose of Business or Amusement in the Place where such Fair shall be held, or within Three hundred Yards thereof, then it shall be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer, within his Jurisdiction, to take into Custody the Master or Mistress, or other Person having the Care, Government or Management of any such House, Shop, Room, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggon or other Place, and also every Person being therein, and who shall not quit the same forthwith upon being bidden by any such Constable or other Peace Officer so to do, and to convey every such Person so taken, as soon as conveniently may be, before a Justice of the Peace, who shall proceed to hear the Complaint in a summary Way; and every Person convicted before any such Justice, as the Master, Mistress or Person having the Care, Government or Management of any such House, Shop, Room, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggon or other Place, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds; and every Person so convicted as having been therein, and not quitted the same forthwith upon being bidden by a Constable or other Peace Officer so to do, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months, nor less than Six Days, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid; and if there shall appear to any Two Justices within their respective Jurisdictions, Reason to believe that any Fair usually held within the Distance aforesaid, has been held without Charter, Prescription or other lawful Authority, or that any Fair lawfully held within the said Distance has been usually held for a longer Period than is warranted by Charter, Prescription or other lawful Authority, it shall be competent to them to summon the Owner or Occupier of the Ground upon which such Fair is usually held, to appear before such Justices as may be present at some Petty Sessions, to be held at the Time and Place to be specified in the Summons, not less than Eight Days after the Service of the Summons, to shew his Right and Title to hold such Fair or to hold such Fair beyond a given Period, (as the case may be), and if such Owner or Occupier shall not stand in possession of such Summons, or shall not shew to the Justices present at such Petty Sessions sufficient Cause to believe that such Fair has been held by lawful Right and Title, for the whole Period during which the same has been usually held, such Justices shall declare, in Writing, such Fair to be unlawful, either altogether or by and at a stated Period (as the case may be), and shall give Notice of such their Declaration, by affixing Copies thereof on the Parish Church, and on the most public Place in and near the Ground where such Fair has been usually held; and if after such Notice shall have been affixed for the Space of Six Days any Amount shall be made to hold such Fair, it shall be declared altogether unlawful, or to hold it beyond the prescribed Period, if it shall be declared unlawful beyond a certain Period, any Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction may, by his Warrant, direct any Constable or other Peace Officer to remove every Booth, Standing and Tent, and every Carriage, or whatsoever Kind, conveyed to or being upon such Ground for the Purpose of holding or continuing such Fair, and to take into Custody every Person erecting, pitching or fixing, or assisting to erect, pitch or fix, any such Booth, Standing or Tent, and every Person driving, accompanying or conveyed in every such Carriage, and every Person resorting to such Ground with any Exhibitions, Shows, Swags, Roundabouts, Whirligigs or other Instruments of Gaming or Amusement, and to every every Person so taken before the Justice granting such Warrant, or before some other Justice, who shall proceed to hear the Complaint in a summary Way, and every Person convicted before any such Justice of any of the Offences last aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction, for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months, nor less than Six Days, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid: Provided nevertheless, that if the Owner or Occupier of the Ground whereon any such Fair has been usually held, shall, when summoned before the Justices at their Petty Sessions as aforesaid, enter into a Recognizance in the Penal Sum of Two hundred Pounds (which Recognizance such Justices are hereby authorized to take), with Condition to appear in the Court of King's Bench on the First Day of the then next Term, and to answer to any Information in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, which His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General may exhibit against such Owner or Occupier, touching the Right and Title to such Fair, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereon, and to pay such Costs as may be awarded by the Court, which Costs the said Court is hereby authorized to award, then notwithstanding the Justices shall declare such Fair to be unlawful, they shall forbear from giving Notice of such their Declaration, and from taking any further Measures thereon, until Judgment shall be given by the said Court against the Right and Title to such Fair; and the Justices taking such Recognizance shall forthwith transmit the same to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the End that the same may be filed in the said Court, and such further Directions may be given thereon as to such Secretary of State may seem fit and necessary.

XVIII. And Whereas it hath become a Practice of late to open Shops or Rooms for the Sale or under the Pretence of selling ready made Coffee, Tea and other Liquors, and to keep such Shops or Rooms open during the whole or the greatest Part of the Night, thereby affording Shelter and Accommodation to Thieves, Profligates and other disorderly Persons, and tending greatly to the Encouragement of Robberies and to the Concomitant of stolen Property: Be it further enacted, That no Shop, Room or Place, for the Purpose aforesaid, within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within any of the Parishes heretofore mentioned, shall be kept open after the Hour of Eleven at Night during any Part of the Year, nor opened before the Hour of Four in the Morning, between Early Day and Midnight, or before Six in the Morning between Midnight and Early Day; and if any such Shop, Room or Place, shall be open within the Hours heretofore prohibited, or being shut up, if any Person shall during those Hours be found therein, except the Persons actually dwelling there, or having lawful Excuse for being there, then the Master, Mistress, Wager or other Person having the Care, Government or Management of such Shop, Room or Place, whether he or she be the real Owner or Keeper thereof or no, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings, upon Conviction of any such Offence before any Justice of the Peace, by Confession or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the said Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction, for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months, nor less than Six Days, unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid; and the said Penalty, when paid, shall be distributed, One Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Chamberlain of the City of London, if the Offence be committed in the said City, and if out of the said City, then to the said Receiver for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or affect any House duly licensed for the Sale of Wine and Spirituous Liquors; and that no such Conviction shall exempt the Owner, Keeper or Manager of any such Shop, Room or Place, from any Penalty or penal Consequence wherein he or she may be liable for keeping a disorderly House.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, within the City of London, and Liberties thereof, or within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, show any Horses, or use any other noisy Instruments for the Purpose of hawking, selling or distributing any Article whatsoever, it shall be lawful for any Constable, Houseborough, Patrol, Watchman or other Person, to apprehend every Person so offending, and convey him before any Justice of the Peace, who shall proceed to examine upon Oath any Witnesses appearing to give Evidence touching such Offence; and if the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence, then and in every such case he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor less than Ten Shillings, to be applied in such manner as such Justice shall direct; and in case the Offender shall not upon Conviction forthwith pay the Penalty, such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept in hard Labour for any time not exceeding Ten Days, nor less than Three Days, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Conviction for the Offences aforesaid shall be in the following Form of Words, or in some other Form of Words to the like Effect:

XXXVIII. And whereas, for the Purpose of increasing the Facility of Depredation it hath been a common Practice among Persons concerned in the loading and warehousing of Merchandize from on board Ships and Vessels in the said River, willfully to injure and promote the opening and breaking of Casks, Bags and other Packages, and the spoiling of their Contents: For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That if any Person employed in the loading, landing or warehousing of any Goods, or any other Person, shall willfully or through culpable Negligence or Carelessness, cause or suffer, or be concerned in causing or suffering to be broken, bruised, pierced, staved, cut, torn or otherwise injured, any Cask, Box, Chest, Bag or other Package, containing or being designed and prepared for containing any Goods white on board of any Barge, Lighter or other Craft lying or being in the said River, or any Dock, Creek, Quay, Wharf or Landing Place adjacent to the same, or in or in the Way to or from any Warehouse or to or from which such Package shall have been removed, shall be removing, or about to be removed, with Intent that the Contents of such Package, or any Part thereof, may be spoiled or dropped from such Package, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence be deemed and adjudged guilty of Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as hereinafter mentioned.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if for the Purpose of preventing the Seizure or Discovery of any Materials, Furniture, Stores or Merchandize belonging to or having been Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel lying in the said River or the Docks or Creeks adjacent thereto, or of any other Articles unlawfully obtained from any such Ship or Vessel, any such or any other Article shall be willfully let fall or thrown into the River, or in any other manner deceitfully or purposely conveyed away or endeavored to be conveyed away from any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Craft, Wharf, Quay or other Landing Place, every Person being Party, Privy or Accessory to such Letting fall, Throwing or Conveyance, or to any previous Instructious or preconcerted Design so to let fall, throw or convey away any such Article with any such Purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor; and every Thames Police Surveyor or Constable or other Peace Officer within his Jurisdiction, shall apprehend and detain every such Person, and forthwith convey him or her before some Justice, and shall also seize and detain any Boat in which such Person shall be found, or out of which any such Article shall be so let fall, thrown, or conveyed away, and upon the Conviction of such Person, such Boat, with her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture and Loading, shall be forfeited and disposed of as is hereinafter directed.

XL. And be it further enacted, That for every Offence hereinafter declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which no Special Penalty is hereinafter appointed, the Offender shall, at the Discretion of the Justice before whom the Conviction shall take place, either forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, or suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding Two Months, in any Goal or House of Correction within the Jurisdiction of such Justice; and in case of the Adjudication of a pecuniary Penalty, and Nonpayment thereof, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the Offender to any Goal or House of Correction for the like Term, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid; and One Mesity of every such pecuniary Penalty shall be paid to such Receiver as aforesaid for the Purposes of this Act, and the other Mesity thereof, under the Direction of the Justice by whom the same shall have been adjudged, shall either be paid and applied to the Use of the Inferior poor, or be distributed between such Person as shall have contributed to the Conviction of the Offender, in such Shares and Proportions as such Justice shall think fit; and that when any Articles shall be seized by virtue of this Act, and the Person in whose Possession the same shall have been found shall be convicted of a Misdemeanor as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom the Conviction shall take place to cause such Articles to be advertised in some public Newspaper, from the Date of such Advertisement, in the manner and upon the Conditions directed in and by an Act of the Second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled As Act to prevent the conveying of Things and Funds by Persons respecting Row Boats and other Boats upon the River Thames; and if no Person shall prove his Property and Right to the said Articles within the said Thirty Days, the same shall be sold for the best Price that can reasonably be gotten for the same; and after deducting the Charges according to the said recited Act, the Residue of the Produce thereof shall be paid to the said Receiver for the Purposes of this Act.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which Complaint shall be made of any Offence by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary Penalty is hereinafter appointed, with or without Imprisonment, in addition thereto or in lieu thereof, the Matter of such Complaint, if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended within the Jurisdiction of the City of London, may be heard and determined by the Lord Mayor, Recorder or One of the Aldermen of the said City, and not elsewhere; but if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended out of the said Jurisdiction, such Complaint may be heard and determined, either by One of the Justices appointed to the Thames Police Office as aforesaid, or by any other Justice within whose Jurisdiction the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended; and every Conviction thereon shall be certified, filed and entered in such manner as is directed in and by the said Act of the second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, with respect to Convictions under that Act, and may also be drawn up in such Form and Manner, in so far as respects, as is appointed in and by the same Act; and neither such Conviction, nor any Proceeding thereon, shall be removed by Certiorari or otherwise, into any Court of Record, but such Conviction shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XLIII. And Whereas the Punishments for Misdemeanors provided in and by the said Act of the second Year of His late Majesty's Reign, have been found insufficient for the preventing of such Offences: Be it enacted, That every Person who shall be guilty of any of the Offences respectively made and declared to be Misdemeanors in and by the said Act, may be punished at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices by or before whom the Offender shall be convicted, either with the Punishment appointed in and by the said Act, or by such other Punishment as is hereby appointed for and in Cases of Offences declared to be Misdemeanors in and by this present Act; and that all the Powers and Provisions of the said last recited Act, respecting the Obstruction of its Execution, and the Commencement and Prosecution of Actions against Justices, and their Officers acting thereunder, shall extend to all Things done, and to all Persons acting under this Act, as fully as if the same Powers and Provisions were herein repeated and re-enacted.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which it is directed by the said last recited Act, that any Boat with her Tackle and Appurtenances, which shall be forfeited, shall be burnt and destroyed, it shall be lawful for any Justice before whom any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence, whereby any Boat is or should be adjudged to be forfeited under that Act, and also for any Justice by whom any Boat shall be adjudged to be forfeited under this Act, to direct such Boat, with her Tackle and Appurtenances, either to be burnt and destroyed, or to be removed to the Owners thereof, or to be publicly sold, and the Produce of such Sale to be applied in like manner as other Forfeitures under this Act.

XLIV. [14th July 1822.]

WHEREAS An Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for transferring several Annuities of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum into Annuities of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum: And Whereas another Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for converting Annuities and Debentures of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum payable at the Bank of Ireland, into New Annuities of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum: And Whereas many Persons may be bound by the Conditions of Bonds, or the Terms of Contracts or Trusts, or as Executors under Wills, executed, entered into or made before the passing of the said Acts respectively, to transfer specific Amounts of Capital Stock in the Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, at Periods or upon Events which may happen posterior to the Reduction of the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities under the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them, or to pay certain Annuities or Sums of Money out of Dividends upon such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, which such Persons will be disabled from doing in consequence of the said recited Acts; and it is therefore expedient and necessary to provide for the Mode in which the Conditions of any such Bonds, or the Terms of any such Contracts, or Execution of any such Trusts, or the Payment of any such Legacies, or Distributions of Property under any such Wills, shall be fulfilled: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every case in which any Person or Persons shall, at the time of the passing of this Act, be or remain bound by the Condition of any Bond or Obligation, or by the terms of any Instrument in Writing, or by any Agreement or Contract entered into or made before the passing of the said recited Acts respectively, to transfer any Amount of Capital Stock in the Five Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, the Condition of every such Bond or Obligation, or the Terms of every such Instrument in Writing, or Agreement or Contract, shall be deemed in Law and Equity to be satisfied by making a Transfer of One hundred and five Pounds Capital Stock in the New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, for and in lieu of every One hundred Pounds Capital Stock in the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, as the case may be, and so in proportion for any greater or less Amount; and that where any Part is by the Condition of any such Bond or Obligation, or the Terms of any such Instrument in Writing, or Agreement or Contract, bound or required to pay Half yearly Sums equal to the Dividends on any specified Amount of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, every such Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement or Contract, shall be satisfied by the Payment of Half yearly Sums equal to the Dividends of or upon an equivalent Amount of the said New Four Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, calculated as aforesaid.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case in which any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively shall have been transferred in the way of Loan, upon any Condition in any Bond or Instrument, or under or upon any Agreement or Contract for the Repayment of such Loan, by the replacing the Amount of Stock so transferred, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons who shall have made any such Loan, or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, to declare as Option, and give Notice thereof in Writing, and thereby require the Repayment of One hundred Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain, or in Ireland of One hundred Pounds Irish Currency, for every One hundred Pounds Capital Stock of such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities transferable at the Bank of England or Ireland respectively, so transferred in the way of Loan as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any greater or less Amount; and every Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement or Contract given, entered into or made upon any such Loan or Contract, shall be deemed in every such case, in Law and in Equity, to entitle the Person or Persons, his, her or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, in such Repayment in Money, and to demand and recover the same in any Court in which any Action, Suit, Process or Proceeding may be brought, instituted or carried on, upon any such Bond, Obligation, Instrument, Agreement or Contract: any Thing in any such Bond or Obligation, Instrument, Agreement or Contract, to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Power of Attorney which was at the time of passing the said recited Acts respectively in force, for the Sale or Transfer of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, in respect of which any Dissent may have been signified under the Provisions of the said recited Acts respectively, shall continue and remain in full force, unless legally revoked, for the Purpose of enabling the Attorney or Attorneys therein named to give a legal Discharge for the Principal and Dividend of such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities when paid off, under the Provisions of the said recited Acts respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Powers of Attorney which may have been or may hereafter be granted, and which would have remained in force if this Act had not passed, for the Receipt of Dividends or for Sale or Transfer of any Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, transferable at the Bank of England or Ireland respectively, and which, under or by virtue of the Acts passed in the present Session of Par-

VII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Question may have arisen or may arise, upon the Execution of any Trusts, or upon any Distribution which may have been or may be made, or may remain to be made, by any Trustees, Executors or Administrators, or of or in relation to or arising out of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, or of any Parts or Proportions of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, which may have been vested in any Trustees, or which may have been distributable by any Executors or Administrators, or as to the Application of any Residue thereof, or as to the Distribution or Application of any Four Pounds per Centum Annuities transferred under the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them, in lieu of any Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, whether as to the Powers or Authorities of any such Trustees, Executors or Administrators, or as to the relative Interest of any Persons entitled under any such Trusts or under Wills, to receive any Annuities charged upon or arising or payable out of the Proceeds of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, and of any Person interested in any Residue of any of such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, whether under any specific Provision relating to any such Trusts, or contained in any Will, or arising out of the Execution of any Wills by any Executors, or the Distribution of any Estates by any Administrators; and in all other Cases whenever in which any Question may arise in consequence of the Transfer of any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities into Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, it shall be lawful for any such Trustees, Executors or Administrators, and for any Persons entitled to or interested in any such Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, or any Four Pounds per Centum Annuities created in lieu thereof, or in any Proceeds of any such Annuities, whether in Reverent or otherwise, to make Application to the High Courts of Chancery, or to the Courts of Exchequer in England or Ireland respectively, or to the Court of Sessions in Scotland, or to a summary Way, either by Motion or Petition; and it shall be lawful for the said High Courts of Chancery, or for the Courts of Exchequer in England or Ireland respectively, or for the Court of Sessions in Scotland, to make general Orders in relation to any such Question, or special Orders in a summary Way upon any such Application, or as to any other Matter or Thing relating to any such Annuities, or to any Dividends thereof, or to any Four Pounds per Centum Annuities which may be created in lieu thereof, or to the Application of any such Four Pounds per Centum Annuities, or any Dividends thereof, and no Application, Petition or Affidavit, made by or on behalf of any Trustee, Executor or Administrator, or Trustee, Executor or Administrator, or other Persons or Persons interested in any of such Annuities, or any Dividends thereof respectively, nor any Order or Report made or other Proceeding had in any or either of the said Courts respectively, in consequence of any Question which may arise out of any of the Provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, in relation to the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities respectively, or any Part or

Share or Shares thereof, or in relation to any Four Pounds per Centum Annuities which may be created under the said recited Acts, or either of them, in lieu of the said Five Pounds per Centum Annuities, or the Dividends of such respective Annuities, or any Copy or Copies of such Applications, Petition, Affidavit, Deed, Report or other Proceeding, shall be subject or liable to be stamped or charged or chargeable with any Stamp Duties whatsoever, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Trustees, Executors, Administrators and other Persons acting under any Orders made by any or either of such Courts respectively, or whose Acts shall be confirmed by any or either of such Courts respectively, if done before any Application made to any or either of the said Courts respectively, shall be and are hereby fully indemnified against all Actions, Suits or Proceedings, for or in respect of any Act, Matter or Thing done by them respectively in pursuance of or under any such Order, or which shall be confirmed by any such Order; and in case any Action, Suit or other Proceeding be commenced or instituted against any such Trustee, Executor, Administrator or other Person, for or in respect of any such Act, Matter or Thing, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action, Suit or Proceeding shall be commenced, or shall be pending, upon summary Application, to stay, and such Court is hereby required to stay such Action, Suit or Proceeding, and to make such Order relative to the Costs thereof as such Court shall think expedient.

No Stamp Duties.

Trustees, Administrators, Executors, &c. may be charged with any summary Application.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby empowered and required, to accept and receive New Four Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, created by the hereinafores first recited Act of the present Session of Parliament, as the Consideration for the Purchase of Life Annuities; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Price of such Stock or Annuities, the Collector or Cashier of the Bank of England shall and they are hereby required, on every Day on which any of the said Annuities shall have been bought at the Bank of England, to cause an Account to be made out of the Average Price thereof, according to the Regulations prescribed by any Act or Acts now in force for ascertaining the Average Price of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, for enabling the Purchase of Life Annuities; which said Account shall be transmitted to the Officer appointed by the said Commissioners, to enable him to ascertain the respective Amounts of the Life Annuities which may be purchased by the Transfer of such New Four Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities as aforesaid.

New 4l. per Centum Annuities may be accepted by the Commissioners for Life Annuities.

IX. And be it further enacted, That when any New Four Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities shall be transferred to the said Commissioners, for the Purchase of Life Annuities, that such Four Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities shall be first converted, by the Computation of the said Officer, into Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities (at the Option of the Purchaser) according to the Average Price of these Stocks, to be ascertained as hereinafores directed; and the Life Annuities to be granted thereon shall be calculated and ascertained upon the Amount of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, including Fractions (if any), produced by such Conversion, according to the Provisions, Rules and Regulations prescribed by any Act or Acts now in force enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities.

Mode of computing New 4l. per Cent.

X. And Whereas the time has not yet expired within which certain Proprietors of Five per Cent. Annuities payable in England and Ireland respectively, are empowered to signify their Dissent to accept Four per Cent. Annuities in lieu thereof, it is therefore expedient that Provision should be made for paying off those Proprietors who may hereafter signify such Dissent; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, out of any of the Aids or Supplies which have been or which may hereafter be granted by Parliament, so long as to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or Ireland respectively, such Sum or Sums of Money as may be necessary for paying off any such Proprietor or Proprietors who may so dissent, and also for paying the Proportion of the Dividend or Interest which may have accrued on the said Five per Cent. Annuities, up to the Day or Days which may be appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury for paying off such Proprietor, and which shall in no case be less than Ten Days from the Day of signifying such Dissent.

Provision should be made for paying off of such Proprietors by Parliament.

C A P. LXII.

An Act for regulating the Fees chargeable in His Majesty's General Register House at Edinburgh, and for completing the Bookings necessary for keeping the Public Records of Scotland therein.

(15th July 1822.)

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to establish certain Offices, and regulate others, in Scotland, it was among other things enacted, that from and after the Commencement of the then ensuing Sessions in the Offices of Keeper of the Signet and Lord Register in Scotland respectively, in the manner therein mentioned, the Fees paid and payable to the Lord Register for Scotland, or in respect of the Duties then discharged by any Person or Persons in the Office of the said Lord Register, should continue to be paid and payable in the same manner as such Fees respectively were then paid and payable; and such Fees should be applied, in the first Place, in satisfying and paying such Salaries or Allowances as the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, should think fit to grant and direct to be paid to any Person or Persons whom they might think necessary for the due Discharge of the Business appertaining to the Office of Lord Register, and in the next Place in the Payment of the Salary of One thousand two hundred Pounds per Annum thereby granted to the Person holding the said Office of Lord Register, and any Balance of such Fees which should remain after such Payment should be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, at least once in Three Months, or as the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, should direct, and should be paid and accounted for by him with the other Public Monies received by him: And Whereas the Interest which then existed in the said Office of Lord Register in Scotland terminated by the Death of the Right Honourable Archibald Colquhoun, which happened on the Eighth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and the said Office of Lord Register is now held, and the Duties thereof are now discharged, by the Person who was then and still continues Keeper of the Signet for Scotland, in the manner directed by the said recited Act: And Whereas it is expedient that the Fees exigible in respect of the Office of the Lord Register for Scotland, and in respect of the Duties discharged by the Person or Persons in the Office of the said Lord Register, which are directed to be continued to be paid and payable by the said recited Act, should be regulated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord President of the Court of Session in Scotland, the Lord Register of Scotland, the Lord Advocate of Scotland, the Lord Justice Clerk, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and the Lord Chief Commissioner of the King's Court, all for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, to enquire into and ascertain, and to modify and regulate in such manner as to them shall appear just and proper, the Fees that are or ought to be paid and payable for or in respect of the Office of Lord Register for Scotland, or in respect of the Duties discharged by any Person or Persons in the Office of Lord Register, which are directed to be continued to be paid and payable by the said recited Act, and to frame a Table fixing and setting the Amount of each and every such Fee and all such Fees, and to make a Report thereof and thereupon to each House of Parliament.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Two Calendar Months after such Report shall be made to each House of Parliament, the Fees specified in each Table and no others, shall be and become the only Fees exigible for or in respect of the said Office of Lord Register, and in respect of the Duties discharged by any Person or Persons in the said Office of the said Lord Register, with reference to the several Matters and Things to which such Fees shall respectively appertain, as appearing from the said Table.

III. And Whereas the Building called the General Register House, which has been erected for the Purpose of being a Repository of the Public Instruments and Records of Scotland, remains to be completed according to the Original Design and Plan thereof, and the Accommodation afforded by so much of the Building as has been erected has become insufficient for the Purposes of such Repository: and it being necessary that additional Accommodation should be afforded, it is reasonable that the Balance of Fees remaining, after satisfying and paying the Salaries or Allowances granted or that may be granted for the due Discharge of the Business appertaining to the said Office of Lord Register, and also of the Office of the Keeper of the Signet, when the same shall come to be, as the said Office of Lord Register has been regulated pursuant to the said recited Act, should be applied for this Purpose: Be it enacted, That the Balance of all such Fees that has already arisen, and the Balance of all such Fees that shall hereafter arise, which are directed by the said recited Act to be paid to the Receiver General of Scotland, shall be paid to the Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland, the Keeper of the Privy Seal, the Lord Justice General of Scotland, the Lord President of the Court of Session in Scotland, the Lord Register of Scotland, the Lord Advocate of Scotland, the Justice Clerk, the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and the Lord Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court, all for the time being, until Sums shall have been received by them, or any Three or more of them, to the Amount of Thirty thousand Pounds.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Sums so received by virtue of this Act shall be laid out and applied by the aforesaid Persons herein named, or any Three or more of them, in completing and fitting up the Buildings intended for a General Repository of the Public Records of Scotland, according to the Original Plan or Design thereof, Part of which only has been finished, or according to such other Plan or Design as shall appear to the aforesaid Persons aforesaid named, or any Three or more of them, best adapted in the present State of the Public Records of Scotland, for the Purposes of such Repository.

V. And be it enacted, That once at least in Three Years from and after the passing of this Act, the aforesaid named Persons, or some Three or more of them, shall make a Report to each House of Parliament, stating the Sums from time to time received by them pursuant to this Act, the Application thereof, the Progress made in completing the said Building, and any Matter arising out of the same which may appear proper for them to be reported to Parliament.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Sale shall be made of any such Rent for the Purpose of extinguishing the same, unless all arrears thereof, up to the Time of Payment of the First Deposit of the Purchase Money, or the Sum for which the same shall be compounded under the Provisions of this Act, shall have been fully paid and satisfied to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors.

X. And Whereas Persons may be desirous of purchasing such Rents, in order that the same may cease or be extinguished, who may not be seized in Fee Simple of the Honors, Manors, Towns, Lands, Rectories, Tithes, Fairs, Markets, Ferries, Tenements and Hereditaments out of which the Rent or Rents which they may be desirous of purchasing are payable: Be it therefore enacted, That in such Case it shall and may be lawful for every such Person, by any Deed or Deeds in Writing, to raise any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding the Amount of the Purchase Money paid for such Rent or Rents, and the said Fees thereof, and the Expence of such Purchase, by Mortgage of the Towns, Lands, Rectories, Tithes, Fairs, Markets, Ferries, Tenements and Hereditaments, or by Sale of a sufficient Part thereof, or otherwise to charge and incumber the same with such Sum or Sums and the Interest thereof, and to dispose of the same in such manner as he or they shall think proper; and every such Sale or Mortgage, Charge and Incumbrance, shall be good and valid in the Law against every Person in Remembrance or Recollection in or to the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged or incumbered, and all other Persons entitled to or claiming any Debt, Charge and Incumbrance affecting the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged or incumbered, and shall have Priority thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be desirous that any Rent so to be purchased shall submit for the Use of the Purchaser, and the Heirs and Assigns of such Purchaser, then and in such case, upon Payment into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, according to the Course of the said Exchequer, of such Sum as shall be approved of by the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Purchase of any such Rent or Rents and the Fees thereof, a Certificate shall be given by the proper Officer of the said Exchequer in manner herebefore mentioned; save that such Certificate shall declare that the Rent or Rents so purchased, in or are so purchased, to the Use of the Purchaser and the Heirs and Assigns of such Purchaser; and such Certificate shall be enrolled in manner hereby required with respect to any other Certificate; and from the time of such Enrolment, the Rent or Rents so purchased, shall be vested in the Purchaser or Purchasers, and the Heirs and Assigns of such Purchaser or Purchasers.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all such Rents as shall be so purchased for the Use of the Purchaser, shall be paid and payable to such Purchaser, and the Heirs and Assigns of such Purchaser, by Two equal Half yearly Payments, on every Twenty fifth Day of March and Twenty sixth Day of September in every Year, together with the Fees payable on the same; and such Purchaser, and the Heirs and Assigns of such Purchaser, shall have the like Remedy for recovering such Rents by Distress or Recovery, or by Action of Debt or in Covenant, as any Person may have on any Lease, demise, letting Lands and reserved Rent, in which is contained any Clause of Distress or Re-entry, or any Covenant on the Part of the Lessee, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, to pay Rent, and shall have the like Privileges and Advantages in taking a Distress for such Rent, and in proceeding for the Recovery of such Rent, as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, may by Law have.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Certificate of the Payment of the Purchase Money for any such Rent so enrolled as aforesaid in the Office of the Auditor of the said Exchequer in Ireland, or an attested Copy thereof, shall be admitted in all Courts of Law and Equity as Evidence of the Title of the Purchaser of such Rent, and all Persons deriving under any such Purchaser.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, from time to time, by Deed under their Hands and Seals, or the Hands and Seals of any Three or more of them, to demise and lease any Lands, Tithes, Tentments or Hereditaments belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Right of the Crown as aforesaid, for any Term not exceeding Twenty one Years, at the best approved yearly Rent that can be reasonably had for the same, or upon Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money by way of Fine in Satisfaction of such Rent; and all and every Sum and Sums so received by way of Fine on any such Demise, shall be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, according to the course of the said Exchequer, and shall be applied in manner directed by this Act.

WHEREAS the Provisions contained in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to amend an Act, made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, relating to Prisons in Ireland, have in several Instances proved insufficient, and it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed, and other Provisions made in lieu thereof; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided always, that all Acts, Matters and Things, acted and done under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, at any time before the Expiration of Ten Days next after the passing of this Act, shall be as good, valid and effectual, and that any Penalty incurred for any Offence under the said recited Act may be recovered, as if the said recited Act had not been repealed by this Act.

20 G. 3. c. 122. § 15-19 24.

II. And Whereas by an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing the several Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland, and for re-creating each of the Provisions thereof as have been found useful, with Amendments; the several Grand Jurors throughout Ireland have certain Powers vested in them, and are required to perform certain Duties with regard to the Regulation of the several Prisons within their respective Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, and to the regular Supply of Food and other Necessaries for the Prisoners confined therein: And Whereas it is expedient to provide for the Visiting and superintendance of such Prisons, and for carrying into effect the Regulations of the said Act, and for making other Regulations for the Prevention of all Abuses in such Prisons; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City or County of a Town, in Ireland, or any Three or more of the Grand Jurymen, having been sworn as such at any preceding Assizes for such County, or County of a City or County of a Town, from time to time, and they shall think fit or see occasion, to visit any Goal, Bridewell, House of Correction, or any other Prison within such County, County of a City or County of a Town, and belonging thereto, every such Visit to be on such Day and Hour, and either by previous Appointment or not, as such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen shall think fit and proper; and it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, to enquire concerning the due Performance of the Rules and Regulations in and by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty prescribed and required to be observed to Prisons throughout Ireland, and also concerning the due Performance of such other Rules and Regulations as may have been lawfully made under the Authority of any other Act of Parliament, or of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland, or of the Judges of Assize under the Authority of this Act, in manner hereafter provided, or under any other lawful Authority whatsoever; and also to enquire into the Conduct and Situation of the Prisoners in any such Goal, Bridewell, House of Correction or Prison respectively, and of all Persons concerned in the Government or Management thereof, as holding any Office or Employment therein, or relating thereto respectively; and such Grand Jury, or any Three or more Grand Jurymen, are hereby authorized and empowered, as aforesaid, on Oath, any Persons or Persons, touching the Conduct of any Officer of any such Prison, or of any Prisoner therein, or touching or relating to the Government and Management of such Prisons, and the Promotion of Industry and Order therein, and the Classification and Distribution of Officers and Prisoners in any such Prison, and the Separation of Male and Female Prisoners, and of Prisoners committed for Trial only, from such as shall have been convicted of Crimes and under Sentence of Punishment; and if it shall appear to the said Board, by Evidence on Oath or otherwise, that the Persons concerned in the Government or Management of any such Prison, or any of them, or any Person holding any Office or Employment therein or relating thereto, have misbehaved therein, by any Neglect or Breach or Non-observance of the Rules and Regulations, or any of them, to which they were respectively bound by Law to conform, then it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen, and they see hereby authorized, empowered and required, to make a Report respecting such Misbehaviour to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, without Delay, or otherwise to make such Report to the Obedient Jury at the next Assizes, or to the Sheriff of the County, or to all or any of them, at the Discretion of such Visitors, and in the meantime to admonish and reprimand all Persons guilty of any Misconduct as or relating to such Prisons.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Keeper of any such County Prison, and the Inspector, and every other Officer of such Prison, shall at all reasonable Hours attend in such Prison, on due Notice for that Purpose, in order to give to such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen such Information as may be necessary, on Oath or otherwise, as shall be required by such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen concerning such Prison, and the Officers thereof, or any of them, and concerning the Prisoners therein, or any of them, and relating to all Matters connected with the Order and good Government of such Prison; and if any such Keeper, Inspector or other Officer shall refuse so to attend, or to be examined, or to give sufficient Answers to any Inquiries, it shall not be lawful for any One of such Grand Jury or Grand Jurymen to make Complaint thereof to the Court or Judge at the next ensuing Assizes to be held for such County or County of a City or Town, and such Court or Judge may commit such Offender as in Cases of Contempt of Court committed in the Face of the Court at such Assizes.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, any Prisoner of whatever Description, in any Prison whatsoever in Ireland, who shall desire to receive Food and other Necessaries, and who shall not be of sufficient Ability to procure the same, shall be supplied in manner hereinafter mentioned respectively with such Food and Necessaries at the Public Expence; and every such Prisoner, as long as he shall be so supplied, shall be deemed and taken to be a poor Prisoner within the Meaning of this Act, and shall be subject as such to all Rules and Regulations hereinafter specified to that behalf, and it shall not be lawful for any such Prisoner who shall be so supplied at the Public Expence, to accept or receive any Food or Liquor, other than such as shall be so supplied under this Act; and if any such Prisoner shall accept any Food or Liquor contrary to this Act, such Prisoner shall no longer be supplied at the Public Expence, and shall thereupon cease to be deemed and taken to be a poor Prisoner within the Meaning of this Act.

V. Provided always and be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Person shall be confined or detained in any Prison at the Suit of any Creditor or Creditors for any Debt less than the Sum of Ten Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Court under Process from which such Debtor shall be detained, on the Application of such Debtor, in case such Court shall think right under the Circumstances of the Case so to do, in order the Creditor or Creditors at whose Suit such Debtor shall be confined or imprisoned to pay to such Debtor such Sum or Sums, not exceeding the Rate of Four Shillings by the Week in the whole, at such times and in such manner as the said Court shall direct; and that on Failure of Payment thereof as directed by such Court, such Debtor shall forthwith be discharged from Custody at the Suit of the Creditor or Creditors failing to pay the same.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Money required for the Payment of any Person or Persons who shall supply, or shall contract to supply any such Food or other Necessaries, Articles, Mattens or Things respectively, for the Use of such poor Prisoner, shall be raised and levied in every County, County of a City and County of a Town throughout Ireland, by Proclamation of the Grand Jury, in like manner as Money for similar Purpose has been heretofore raised and levied under the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty's Royal, save as in and by this Act it otherwise expressly provided.

VII. And Whereas by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, it is among other things provided, that the Inspector of every Prison in Ireland shall oversee and regulate the providing Food, as he should judge most proper, to the Value of not less than Five Pence per Day, for every Person confined for any Offence, under his Inspection, who should stand in need of such Assistance, and it is expedient that the said Provision should be altered as hereinafter is provided: Be it therefore enacted, That on each of the said Acts as prescribes any Amount in Value for such Prisoners shall be and the same is hereby repealed: and that from and after the passing of this Act, either of the Inspectors General of Prisons, to be appointed under this Act, shall make out a regular Dietary Table for each and every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction or other Person in Ireland, setting forth the Quantity and Description of Food for each and every Day during the Week, to be allowed per Head to all poor Prisoners therein; which Dietary Table so prepared shall be submitted to the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin, or any One or more of them, in order that such Table may be approved, or may be altered or amended, as such Judges or Judges shall think fit; and such Dietary Table, when approved of by such Judge or Judges, shall be adopted and strictly adhered to in such Prisons as a new Dietary Table shall be appointed; and a Copy of every such Dietary Table shall be placed by the Local Inspector of each Prison, in some conspicuous Part of the Common Hall in every such Prison, within the Inspection; and according to such Table, Provisions shall be provided for, and distributed to all poor Prisoners in such Prisons respectively, in the same manner as and in lieu of the Provisions directed by the said Act of the Fifthth Year of His late Majesty's Reign.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for either of the Inspectors General of Prisons to alter or vary such Dietary Table from time to time, subject to the Approbation, Alteration or Amendment of the said Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin, or any One or more of them, from time to time; and thereupon such Table, when so altered and approved, shall be forthwith copied out by the said Local Inspector, and set up in the Place of any former Dietary Table, to be in every respect pursued and abided by until such Table shall be again duly altered as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts for Supply of Food or other Necessaries for the Use of any Gaol, where approved of by the proper Authority, shall be entered into by such Contractors with the Clerks of the Peace in the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively; and that it shall and may be lawful for any such Clerk of the Peace, under the Direction of the Grand Jury, to see for the Breach of any such Contract.

X. And Whereas it will be advantageous to Prisoners, that a regulated System of Accounts of Provisions, and Exact Proportions of Fuel and other Allowances, should be established: Be it therefore enacted, That a Book shall be kept in the Gaol of every County, County of a City or County of a Town, as England, according to the Form in the Schedule marked (A.) to this Act annexed, or in some Form similar thereto, to be approved of by the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin, or any One or more of them, and shall contain an accurate Daily Account of the Number of poor Prisoners confined within the Gaol, who are entitled to receive the Gaol Allowances, together with an Account of the several Articles of Food, Fuel or other Allowances issued to each Class within the Prison during the Day; and such Book shall be compared with the Pass Books of each Contractor respectively, prior to any Payments made to any such Contractor, and shall be closed prior to every Assize, in order that the Accounts may be examined by the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, in order to ascertain that the Articles are issued in due Proportions as by Law established; and such Grand Jury shall likewise make Provisions for a sufficient Sum for the Payment of the Arrears.

XI. And Whereas it appears, that so many Gaols the poor Prisoners are not supplied with Prison Dresses, Beds, Bedding and other Necessaries under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifthth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, and that so Little is assigned to each Gaol in respect to the Number of such Articles to be supplied in such Gaols respectively: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for either of the Inspectors General of Prisons to be appointed under this Act, with the Approbation of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin, or any One or more of them, to regulate and determine the Establishment at which each Gaol, Bridewell or other Prison shall be used in respect to its Complement of Prisoners; and that it shall and may be lawful for any of the said Inspectors General of Prisons, at his or their annual Inspection of each Prison, to ascertain the Deficiencies of the said Prison Dresses, Beds, Bedding and other Articles, and to order a Supply of the same; and that the said Articles shall be preserved in the Stores of the several Local Inspectors, to be issued to such Prisoners as are entitled thereto, under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifthth Year of His late Majesty's Reign; and it shall and may be lawful for any such Local Inspector to present to the Collector of Excise in the District in which such Prison is situate, an Account of the Expenses incurred by such Supplies of Deficiencies, certified by One of the Inspectors General of Prisons, according to Forms in the Schedules marked (B.) and (C.) annexed to this Act, or in any similar Form approved by the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Dublin, or any One or more of them; and such Collector of Excise is hereby required to administer as Oath to such Local Inspector of the Accuracy of such Account, and such Collector of Excise shall thereupon pay to the said Inspector the Amount of such Account out of any Public Monies in the Hands of such Collector of Excise; and the Grand Jury of such County, County of a City or County of a Town, shall and are hereby required to make Provisions to the said Collector of Excise of the Amount of such Payments at the next succeeding Assize.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Bedding to be allowed to poor Prisoners, under the said recited Act of the Fifthth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, shall consist of Three single Blankets to each Bed, and that the Prison Dresses shall consist of a Cap, Jacket, Waistcoat, Trowsers and Shoes for Men, and a suitable Dress to Female Prisoners, with Shoes.

XIII. And Whereas by and under the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifthth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of England, to appoint One Inspector General of Prisons in England; And Whereas the said Inspector General of Prisons is, by the said Act, required to visit every Prison in England once at least in every Two Years, as also every Madhouse, or Lunatic Asylum, and to report thereupon to the Lord Lieutenant and to Parliament: And Whereas the said Duties have been found too extensive and arduous for the Performances of One Officer, and it is necessary to provide more effectually for the due Execution of the same: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of England, for the time being, to nominate and appoint Two fit and proper Persons to be Inspectors General of Prisons in England, removable at the Will and Pleasure of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland: In the same Manner, and such Two Persons shall perform all the Duties provided for the said separate Government of Prisons, under the said heretofore recited Act, and as directed by this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to appoint the several Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns in Ireland, into Two Circuits, for the Purposes of this Act, and each of the said Inspectors General shall, once at the least in every Year, visit every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, Penitentiary or other Prison, and every Madhouse and Place where Lunatics and Idiots are confined, for the Purpose of making a annual Inspection, and report upon the State thereof within One of the said Circuits respectively, alternately in each succeeding Year, so that every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, Penitentiary, Madhouse and other Prison and Place as aforesaid, shall be visited and reported upon by each of the said Inspectors General once in every Two Years at the least.

XV. And be it further enacted, That a Copy of the several Reports of each of the said Two Inspectors General shall be delivered by them to the Clerk of the Peace of each County, County of a City, or County of a Town, prior to the Spring Assizes in each Year, in order that the same may be laid before the Grand Jurors of the Counties, Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, to which such Reports shall relate, at the several Spring and Summer Assizes; and every such Report shall contain an Account of each and every Gaol, Bridewell, House of Correction, Penitentiary or other Prison, and of every Madhouse and Place where Idiots and Lunatics are confined within the said Counties, and Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Collectors of Excise of the District in which such Counties, Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns as aforesaid may be situated, to pay, and the said Collector of Excise is hereby required to pay to the Inspector General for the Year, who shall make such Reports, a Sum of Twenty Pounds, which Sum shall be repaid to the said Collector of Excise by Provisions at the next ensuing Assizes, and the Grand Jury are hereby required to prevent the same accordingly.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That each of the said Inspectors General to be appointed under this Act shall and may, in the Circuit which he shall usually make, exercise and possess all the Powers and perform all the Duties given and prescribed to the Inspector General of Prisons by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty.

XVII. XLIV. And be it further enacted, That no Prisoner shall be detained in any Bridewell, except in District Bridewells, selected as aforesaid, longer than Three Days from the Day of Committal, unless Two Justices of the Peace of the County, County of a City or County of a Town, shall think proper to order that such Prisoner be longer detained for the Purposes of Examination, and then only for the time mentioned in such Order, or any Renewal thereof, but that all such Prisoners shall be diligently transmitted to the County Gaol or District Bridewell, as the case may be: Provided always, that if any such Bridewell shall be distant more than Twelve Miles from such County Gaol, then any such Prisoner may, if the Confining Magistrate shall so direct, by Order under his Hand, be detained in such Bridewell until the First Week in the Calendar Month next after such Committal, but not longer, so that all Prisoners committed in any One Calendar Month may be sent under One Escort.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Materials and Tools necessary for any such Work, and all Books and Teachers necessary for the learning of any Trade, as well as for the Instruction of every such poor Prisoner in Reading and Writing, shall be in the manner provided, and the Expence thereof raised by Presentation as aforesaid.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, in contravention of any existing Rules, shall carry or bring, or attempt or endeavour to carry or bring into any Prison in Ireland any Spirituous or fermented Liquor, it shall be lawful for the Keeper or Keeper in apprehended or cause to be apprehended such Offender, and to carry such Offender before a Justice of the Peace (who is hereby empowered to hear and determine such Offence in a summary Way), and if such Justice shall lawfully convict such Person of such Offence, he shall forthwith commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept in Custody for any time not exceeding Three Months, without Bail or Mainprize, unless such Offender shall immediately pay down such Sum of Money, not exceeding Twenty Pounds and not less than Ten Pounds, as such Justice shall expose upon such Offender; to be paid, One Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Inspector of such Prison, in aid of the Maintenance of such Prison, and if any Justice shall receive Information upon Oath that any Spirituous or fermented Liquor is unlawfully kept or disposed of in any Prison, he may enter and search, or issue his Warrant to enter and search for such Liquor, and to seize any such Spirituous or fermented Liquor shall be seized, it shall be lawful for the Person so finding the same to seize the same, and cause it to be disposed of as the Justice shall direct; and if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall sell, or lend or give away, or knowingly permit or suffer to be sold, used, lent or given away in such Prison, or brought into the same, any Spirituous or fermented Liquor, in contravention of the existing Rules of such Prison, he shall be for every such Offence, over and above any other Punishment by this Act inflicted, forfeit and lose the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

SCHEDULE (A.)
INSTRUCTIONS to be prefixed to the Provision Book of every Gaol.

The Grand Jury of each County will determine from the Three Descriptions of Dietary, detailed in the Provision Book, which may be most suitable to the Circumstances of the County; and such Dietary is to be posted up in some conspicuous Part of the Prison, and used throughout the Gaol. The Columns under the Head of the Two other Dietary Tables will of course remain Blank.

A Pass Book is to be kept with the Contractors for each Article of Provision consumed in the Gaol, in which the Amount of Quantity of each Article is to be entered as it is supplied. When a Payment is to be made, the Provision Book and Pass Books are to be made up, to ascertain that the Quantity used of each Article, together with the Quantity in Store, corresponds with the Quantity laid in, and with the regulated Allowances. The Blank Columns at the End of the Account are intended for any extra Supplies, as where Turf is used as Fuel, or under any other extra Circumstances.

When any Man is placed on Diet below the regulated one, his Allowance of each Article composing the usual Diet will make a Deduction in the Columns in which the Amount of that Article is stated; this Deduction from the regular Calculation will be explained by a N. B. at the Foot of the Account for the Day; as for Example "N. B. One Man on Bread and Water."

In the Line of "Brought forward" in the Abstract Account, is to be inserted the Total Issue, from the Day of last Settlement of the Books.

and with respect to the Excess of the Money which might be so raised in any Year by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, such an annual Sum as should be equal to one Half of the Interest of such Excess should be set apart out of the Money coming to the Consolidated Fund, and should in like manner be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners:

declared to be and as effectual to all Intests and Purposes whatsoever, both at Law and in Equity, as if it had been enacted by the said Bankrupt.

V. Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to prevent the Conveying of Freehold by Bankrupts, reciting, that it might be found necessary, that as well Assignments of Bankrupts' Estates then already made by Commissioners, as Assignments thereafter to be made pursuant to the Choice of Creditors, should be vacated, and a new Assignment or Assignments made of the Debts and Effects unrecovered and not disposed of by the then Assignees or other Persons to be chosen by the Creditors; it was therefore enacted and declared, that it should and might be lawful so and for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal for the time being, upon Petition of any Creditors, to make such Order therein as he or they should think just and reasonable; and in a case a new Assignment should be ordered as aforesaid, then that such Debts, Effects and Estate of such Bankrupt should be thereby effectually and legally vested in such new Assignee or Assignees: And Whereas doubts have arisen whether the said Clause extends to authorize the vacating of Deeds of Bargain and Sale enrolled of the Lords, Tenements and Hereditaments of Bankrupts, and it is deemed expedient that such Deeds should be removed: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such Clause does extend to the vacating of any Deeds of Bargain and Sale enrolled of the Lords, Tenements and Hereditaments of any Bankrupt, and that from time to time hereafter it shall and may be lawful so and for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Great Seal for the time being, upon the Petition of any Creditors, to make such Order as he or they shall think just and reasonable, for the vacating of any Deed of Bargain and Sale of the Lords, Tenements and Hereditaments, Freehold or Copyhold, of any Bankrupt or Bankrupts then remaining unaid and not conveyed; and the Instrument thereof, without nevertheless in any manner affecting the Title of any Purchaser under any Bargain and Sale prior to such Order being made, and without reviving any Estate previously barred, but the Title of every such prior Purchaser, and of all claiming under him, shall be good and valid to all Intests and Purposes whatever, in the same manner as if no such Order had been made; and that the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lord Commrs may from time to time hereafter, may order the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to execute a new Bargain and Sale of such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as shall remain unaid or not conveyed to such Person or Persons, and in such manner as to him or them may seem just; and that such Conveyance shall be good and valid to all Intests and Purposes whatsoever, without any Conveyance from any former Assignee or Assignees, or his or their Heirs or Assigns. Provided always, that the Order so made for vacating such Bargain and Sale shall be duly enrolled, together with the new Bargain and Sale made in pursuance of such Order.

VI. And Whereas Doubts have been suggested, whether any Person who wilfully and corruptly swears falsely in an Affidavit made before a Justice or Clergyman in any Matter of Bankruptcy, is liable to the Pain and Penalties now by Law inflicted for this Offence of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and which Doubts ought to be removed: Be it therefore further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Offender is liable to such Pain and Penalties; and that if any Person at any time hereafter shall wilfully and corruptly swear falsely in any Affidavit or Deposition, (or, being of the People called Quakers, shall wilfully and corruptly affirm falsely) before any Justice or Clergyman in Ordinary or Extraordinary in any Matter of Bankruptcy, such Person, being convicted thereof by Indictment or Information, shall be liable to suffer the Pain and Penalties now in force against wilful and corrupt Perjury.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on the Trial of any Suit or Action now commenced or brought, or to be commenced or brought, or of any Issue directed or which shall hereafter be directed to be tried, an Office Copy of any Deed, Affidavit, Certificate, Report, Exception, Letter of Attorney or of any other original Instrument or Writing filed in the Office, or otherwise in the Custody or Possession of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts for the time being, shall be Evidence to be received of such Deed, Affidavit, Certificate, Report, Exception, Letter of Attorney or other original Instrument or Writing respectively, without producing the Original, such Copy being upon proper Stamp, and proved by Oath on such Trial to be a true Copy; and in case any such Deed, Affidavit, Certificate, Report, Exception, Letter of Attorney or other Writing, shall hereafter be produced on any such Trial, the Costs of producing the same shall not be allowed on Taxation of Costs in any such Suit or Action, unless it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Officer who shall tax such Costs, that from the Nature of the Case to be proved, the production of such Deed, Affidavit, Certificate, Report, Exception, Letter of Attorney or other Writing on any such Trial was necessary, and not occasioned through any Neglect, Default or Delay in obtaining such Office Copy thereof as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the receiving in Evidence of such Office Copy or to alter or affect any Evidence now required on the Trial of any Indictment or Prosecution for Felony or Perjury, or other Offence or Misdemeanor.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Creditor or Creditors whose Debt or Debts is or are of a Nature and Amount sufficient to entitle him, her or them to Petition for a Commission of Bankruptcy to be issued against all the Partners of any Firm, may Petition for a Commission of Bankruptcy to be issued against Two or more Partners of such Firm; and that a Commission may be issued upon such Petition, which shall be valid at Law, to all Intests and Purposes whatsoever, notwithstanding it does not include all the Partners of which the Firm is composed.

An Act to authorize certain temporary Advances of Money, for the Relief of the Distresses existing in Ireland. [20th July 1822.]

WHEREAS by reason of the Distress that exists in many Parts of Ireland, it is in many Counties thereof impossible, without great Severity and great Mischiefs to the Country, to levy and raise the Sums heretofore presented by the Grand Jurors of such Counties respectively, and which might by Law be levied and raised on or within the said Counties respectively: And Whereas the Roads and Works and other Objects and Purposes for which any of the said Sums have been presented cannot be delayed without great Injury to the Persons interested therein, and the Convenience of such Works, by employing the Poor, most needful to alleviate the existing Distress: And Whereas in several Parts of Ireland the Grand Jurors, from a Sense of the Distresses of the Country, have declined to make Provisions for the Repair of useful Roads, and other existing Public Works which stand in need of Repair; and such Repairs if executed at this time, must afford considerable Relief to the Distresses of the Poor in those Places respectively: And Whereas, moved by the Consideration aforesaid, His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland hath issued Orders to several Treasurers of Counties, Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns, in Ireland, to withhold their Warrants for the levying of the said Sums so presented, to be raised on or within their respective Counties, Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns, or some Parts or Portions of such Sums respectively, or to issue such Warrants if previously issued; and the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland hath, in some Instances, ordered the Issue and Advance of divers Sums of Money upon His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, or from some of the Public Funds or Offices therein, to the Treasurers of divers Counties, to be applied to the Purposes expressed in such Provisions, or some of them, in to the Repair of Roads or other Public Works in such Counties respectively, and to be hereafter repaid; and it is to provide for the said several Cases in manner hereinafter contained: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Order so issued or to be issued by the said Lord Lieutenant, whether for the withholding of recall of any such Warrant or Warrants, or for the total Execution thereof, or for the Issue or Advance of any such Sum from His Majesty's Exchequer, or otherwise as aforesaid, and the Advance of any such Sum accordingly, shall be and be deemed and taken to be and to have been good, valid and effectual in Law, according to the Import thereof respectively; and that all and every Person who hath heretofore in any way acted or omitted to act, or shall hereafter act or omit to act, as directed by any such Order, shall be and is and is hereby intended for the same, and shall be deemed and taken to have acted legally, and properly therein.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to order such further Advances as he or they shall think necessary, to be made in like manner to any Treasurer of any County, or County of a City, or County of a Town, for the Repair of Roads, or for other Public Works in any County, whether any Provisioner shall have been made for such Purposes or not; and that such Advances may be made accordingly at any time or times before the Assizes for such Counties, Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns respectively, which shall be next after the passing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That each and every Sum and Sums of Money so issued or advanced, or to be advanced, by, from or out of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, or by, from or out of any Public Fund or Money whatsoever, to any such Treasurer as aforesaid, shall be paid and applied by such Treasurer according to the Orders and Directions received by him from the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, concerning the same; and in default of such Orders, shall be paid and applied to or towards the Purposes and Objects expressed in the Provisions, for or towards the Execution whereof such Sums shall have been so issued or advanced; and if the said Sums, or any of them, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, have or hath already been so applied, such Application thereof respectively shall be deemed and taken to have been lawful; and every such Treasurer shall be answerable and accountable for every Sum so received by him, in like manner as for all other Sums received by him as such Treasurer, and shall in each accounting be allowed Credit for all and every Sum and Sums which he shall apply, or shall have applied thereto, in manner or to the Purpose in that Behalf aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Chief Secretary to the 18 G. 4. c. 33. 81.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter and amend several Acts, passed in His Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provisions in respect thereof, it was enacted and declared, That for the Purpose of the said Act an Amount of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt in perpetual redeemable Annuities existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be decreed to be raised and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock as purchased and transferred as therein mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct, should be cancelled in like manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redemption of the Land Tax pursuant to the Provisions of the several Acts thereto relating, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that when so soon as such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Redemption of Land Tax, or the Purchase of Life Annuities, or together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as aforesaid, should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal in Amount to the whole annual Charge in perpetual redeemable Annuities of the Public Debt of Great Britain existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commissioners should thereupon certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should cause the said Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament (if Parliament should be then sitting), but if Parliament should not be then sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, and so from time to time whenever such a further

Further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital, and should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal to Amount to the whole annual Charge in perpetual redeemable Annuities of such Loss contracted since the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, and the said Commissioners should from time to time thereupon in like manner certify and declare the same to the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should in like manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette, and to be laid before Parliament: and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should have been so made, published and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debts to which such Certificate and Declaration should relate should from time to time be deemed and taken to be fully satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Banks of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the South Sea Company, should be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, at such Times and in such Proportions as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that Purpose, in order to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain by way of Loan or in any other manner, and it was thereby further enacted, That whenever the Amount of the Sum to be raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner, which might create an Addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, in that or any future Year, should exceed the Sum which on the First Day of February should have been or should be estimated to be applicable to the same Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, then and in every such Case an annual Sum amounting to the One hundredth Part of the Capital Stock created by so much only of the Monies raised by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, in the Year, as should be equal to the Sum so estimated to be applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, should be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, as the Account of the said Commissioners, in the manner directed by the said therein recited Act of the Thirty second Year of His present Majesty, and with respect to the Excess of the Monies which might be so raised in any Year by way of Loan, or in any other manner as aforesaid, above the estimated Sum applicable to the Reduction of the National Debt within the same Year, such an annual Sum as should be equal to One Half of the Interest of such Excess, should be set apart out of the Monies composing the Consolidated Fund, and should in like manner be issued at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners: And Whereas the Sum which on the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, was estimated to be applicable in the present Year to the Reduction of the National Debt, amounted to Sixteen millions four hundred eighty one thousand four hundred and ninety two Pounds: And Whereas an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for raising a Loan of Seven millions five hundred thousand Pounds from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt. And Whereas the Charge of the said Loan will amount to the annual Sum of Three hundred and seventy three thousand five hundred and eighty seven Pounds Ten Shillings: And Whereas it is expedient to make Provision for such Charge in manner directed by the said first recited Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Sum of Twelve millions four hundred and fifty two thousand nine hundred and seventeen Pounds Three Pounds per Gross Reduced Annuities, standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be cancelled on or before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, and the Interest or Dividends which would have been payable on the said Sum as cancelled shall, from the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, cease to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, or to be charged upon the Consolidated Fund; and the Money which would have been applicable to the Payment thereof, shall remain and be a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Purpose of defraying the Charge occasioned by the Addition made or to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain in the present Year.

II. And Whereas an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for raising a Loan of Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt. And Whereas the Interest for One Year on Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, created by virtue of the said Act, became due on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, but will not become payable until the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty two; and it is expedient that Provision should be made for Payment thereof: Be it therefore enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall order and direct the Sum of Three hundred and seventy five thousand Pounds to be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in Payment and Discharge of the Interest for One Year of the said Reduced Annuities of Twelve millions five hundred thousand Pounds, to the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

An Act to explain an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, respecting the Enforcement of Memorialls of Grants of Annuities.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal an Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for registering the Grants of Life Annuities, and for the better Protection of Infants against such Grants, and to substitute other provisions as in and therein, it is enacted, That within Thirty Days after the Execution of every Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby any Annuity or Rent Charge shall, from and after the passing of the said Act, be granted for One or more Life or Lives, or for any Term of Years or greater Estate determinable on One or more Life or Lives, a Memoriall of the Date of every such Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance of the Names of all the Parties, and of all the Witnesses thereto, and of the Person or Persons for whose Life or Lives such Annuity or Rent Charge shall be granted, and of the Person or Persons by whom the same is to be beneficially received, shall be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, in the Form or to the Effect following, with such Alterations therein as the Nature and Circumstances of any particular Case may reasonably require; And Whereas the Form or Effect to which such Enactment refers is expressed in several Columns, at the Head of One of which are the Words, "Names of Witnesses," and underneath, on applicable to Indentures of Lease and Release, the Letters and Words "E. F. of" "G. H. of" and on applicable to a Bond and Warrant of Attorney to confess Judgment, the Letters "E. F." "G. H." without the Word "of"; And Whereas the Words of Enactment referring to such Form express only that a Memoriall of the Names of all the Witnesses to every such Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance as therein mentioned, should be enrolled as directed by the said Act, without providing that any Description of the Witnesses should be given in such Memoriall, except as such Form is therein referred to, and such Form does not provide that any Description should be added to such Names except by the Addition of the Word "of" to the Letters "E. F." and "G. H." as aforesaid, as applicable to Indentures of Lease and Release: And Whereas in consequence of such inadvertent Enactment it may be doubtful, whether it was the Intention of the Legislature to require any, or if any, what Description to be added to the Names of Witnesses in the Memorial of any Deed, Instrument or Assurance to be enrolled as aforesaid: And Whereas a very great Number of Memorials of Grants of Annuities have, since the passing of the said Act, been enrolled, in which the Names of the Witnesses to the Deeds, Instruments or Assurances specified in such Memorials, have been inserted without the Addition of the Place of Abode of such Witnesses; and it has been inferred, from the Use of the Word "of" after such Letters "E. F." and after such Letters "G. H." as aforesaid, that it was necessary to describe each of such Witnesses in such Memorial as of some Place, and in consequence thereof some Grants of Annuities made since the passing of the said Act have been, in Proceedings in summary Applications to Courts of Justice, which cannot be reviewed in any Superior Court, deemed null and void, on the Ground that no Description of the Place of Abode of the Witnesses to some or one of the Deeds, Instruments or Assurances by which such Grants of Annuities have been made, had been inserted in the Memorials or Memorial thereof enrolled as directed by the said Act: And Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the Construction so put on the said Act is the true Construction thereof, more especially as the same is so far from as it renders Deeds, Instruments and Assurances, of which Memorials have not been enrolled in pursuance of the said Act, null and void, and the Provisions in the said Act are not so clear and explicit as the same ought to have been under such Circumstances, and the Parties claiming under Grants of Annuities may have been thereby misled, and induced to conceive that it was not necessary under the Provisions of the said Act to insert in the Memorial of any Deed, Instrument or Assurance to be enrolled as aforesaid, the Place or Places of Abode of the Witness or Witnesses to such Deed, Instrument or Assurance, or any more than the Name or Names of such Witness or Witnesses, there being no Words in the said Act expressly requiring any more to be so inserted, nor any Words from which it could be inferred that any more was required to be so inserted, except the Word "of" after the Letters "E. F." and "G. H." respectively, with reference to one Species of Assurance inserted in the Form of Memorial before mentioned, and it is expedient to remove all Doubts touching the Construction of the said Act, with respect to all such of the Memorials required by the said Act to be enrolled as relates to any Description of the Witness or Witnesses to any Deed, Instrument or Assurance: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and declared, And be it enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That by the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, or further or other Description of the subscribing Witness or Witnesses to any Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby any Annuity or Rent Charge is or may be granted, is required in the Memorial thereof, besides the Names of all such Witnesses; and so the said Act shall be deemed, construed and taken.

The Names of Witnesses only necessary in Memorial of Annuities.

II. And Whereas Doubts have also arisen, whether under the said Act of the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, the Omission to enrol a Memorial of any one of the Assurances for securing any Annuity or Rent Charge does not vitiate the whole Transaction, notwithstanding the Enrolment of a Memorial of another Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance granting the same: and it is also expedient to remove such Doubts: Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That every Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance granting any Annuity or Rent Charge, and of which a Memorial shall have been or shall be duly enrolled pursuant to the said Act, notwithstanding the Omission to enrol any other Deed, Bond, Instrument or Assurance for securing such Annuity or Rent Charge, shall be valid and effectual, according to the Intent, Meaning and true Effect thereof, notwithstanding a Memorial of any other Deed, Bond, Instrument or Assurance for securing the same Annuity shall not have been duly enrolled pursuant to the said Act.

Annuity Deed, a Memorial of which has been enrolled, valid, notwithstanding Omission of enrolling any other Deed for securing such Annuity

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to give any other Force or Validity to any Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance of which a Memorial shall have been duly enrolled as aforesaid, than such Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance would have had if any Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance for securing the same Annuity, of which a Memorial shall not have been duly enrolled, had never been executed.

Act not to give any additional Validity to any Deed.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to revive or give effect to any Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance, whereby any Annuity or Rent Charge hath been already granted, so far as the same hath been adjudged, declared, treated or deemed void by any Judgment, Decree, Act, Suit or Proceeding at Law or in Equity, or by any Acts or Decrees of the Parties thereto, or by any other legal or equitable Means whatsoever; nor shall this Act affect or prejudice any Suit or Proceeding at Law or in Equity, commenced on or before the Thirty first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty two, and now depending, upon the Ground of an alleged Defect in the Memorial thereof, in not describing the Witnesses thereto otherwise than by his, her or their Name or Names, for avoiding any such Deed, Bond, Instrument or other Assurance.

Act not to give Effect to any Deed declared void, or affect any Proceeding at Law commenced or being prosecuted.

C A P. XCIII.

the said last mentioned Half yearly Payment to commence on the First Day of July, and to continue and be made on or before the First Day of January and First Day of July in each succeeding Year; and that over and besides the said several Sums of Ninety thousand Pounds, and Fifty five thousand four hundred and ten Pounds, and Forty two thousand Pounds, and Fifty five thousand four hundred and ten Pounds, thereinbefore mentioned, the said United Company should pay into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by Half yearly Payments, each Sum and Sums of Money as, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize the advancing for the Public Service, upon certain Conditions, a Proportion of the Balance remaining in the Bank of England, for Payment of unclaimed Dividends, Annuities and Lottery Prizes, and for regulating the Allowances to be paid for the Management of the National Debt, should be payable in respect of the Charges of Management of the said Two several Sums of Three millions Reduced Three Pounds per Centum Annuitie, and One million four hundred thousand Pounds Consolidated Three Pounds per Centum Annuitie, or so much thereof respectively as from time to time should remain unclaimed; also also of the Dividends payable out of any Stock redeemed or purchased therewith; and whenever and respect of the Indian Debts, which had been or might be discharged by means of the said principal Sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, had remained payable in the East Indies; and it should and might be lawful to and for the said United Company to cause Funds for the Payment of such Interest, Sinking Fund and Charges of Management, and all Sums of Money which they should

 Sum of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds was advanced and paid to the said United Company, in pursuance of the said recited Act: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for continuing in the East and sixty one Pounds Capital Stock of the Public Annuitie of Great Britain, bearing an Interest of Three Pounds per Centum, had been purchased or redeemed by the said Payments on account of the Sinking Fund and the Dividends payable on the Stock redeemed from time to time therewith, and the estimated Sum of Two millions three hundred and sixty five thousand five hundred and thirty two Pounds of the said Capital Stock thus remained to be purchased or redeemed for the full Discharge of the said Sum so advanced to the said United Company; and according to the Price prevailing on the First Day of June, the said Sum of Two millions three hundred and sixty five thousand five hundred and thirty one Pounds of the said Capital Stock was then worth the Sum of One million eight hundred and fifty seven thousand three hundred and twenty two Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain:

 And Whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Posses- sion of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories and the better Adminis-upon Balance of all Accounts whatever between them in relation to all the Matters aforesaid to the Twentieth Day of April now last past, save and except in respect of the said Loan of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds, advanced under and by virtue of the said Act of the Fifth second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, and save and except as hereinafter is mentioned: and that the

 and twenty two Pounds, being the estimated Value of the Three Per Cent Consol Capital Stock remaining on the said First Day of June to be purchased or redeemed under or by virtue of the said Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, the said United Company should be acquitted and discharged from all further Payments under the said Act, and in respect of the said Advance of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to alter and amend several Acts passed in his present Majesty's Reign, relating to the Redemption of the National Debt, and for making further Provisions in respect thereof; it was enacted and declared, That for the Purpose of the said Act an Amount of Public Debt equal to the whole Capital of the Public Debt or perpetual redeemable Annuities existing on the Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, should be deemed to be satisfied and discharged, and so much of the Capital Stock so purchased and transferred as therein is mentioned, and standing in the Names of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as Parliament by any Act or Acts of the said Session should or might direct, should be cancelled, in like manner as if the same had been transferred to the said Commissioners for the Redem-to make Provision for the Charge of any Addition to be made to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, by way of Loan or in any other manner, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen; and that when and as soon as such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased by the said Commissioners, or transferred to them for the Redemption of said Loan Tax, or the Purchase of said Annuities, as together with the Amount so already purchased or transferred as aforesaid, should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal to the next Meeting of Parliament, and so from time to time, whenever such a further Amount of the Capital Funded Debt of Great Britain should have been purchased or transferred as aforesaid, as should be equal to the whole Capital, and should have produced an Interest or yearly Dividend equal to the Amount to the whole annual Charge, in perpetual redeemable Annuities, of such Loan contracted since the said Fifth Day of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, the said Commis-

 Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, who should in like manner cause every such Certificate and Declaration to be published in the London Gazette and to be laid before Parliament, and whenever any such Certificate and Declaration should have been so made, published, and laid before Parliament as aforesaid, the Amount of Public Debts to which such Cer-satisfied and discharged, and an equal Amount of Capital Stock, standing in the Names of the said Commissioners in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the said Bank Company, should be considered to be redeemed by Parliament, and should from time to time be cancelled as above mentioned, as often Times and in such Proportions, as should be directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament to be passed for that purpose, in order to make Provision for the Charge

V. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums heretofore mentioned to have been and to be applied in Discharge of the Balance remaining of the said Loan of Two millions five hundred thousand Pounds shall be and be deemed and considered to be a Charge upon the Revenues of the Territorial Acquisitions in the East Indies, in like manner as the several Sums of Money which would have been payable or to be paid by the said United Company, for Interest and Sinking Fund and Charges of Management on the said Loan advanced to the said Company, under and by virtue of the said Act of the Fifty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, would have been chargeable upon such Revenues, if this Act had not been passed; any Law, Usage or Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.
